

Why partner with UniverCity Alliance?

-  Apply your knowledge to projects in communities across Wisconsin.
-  Learn from local government professionals and elected officials.
-  Gain practical skills that you can use as you start your career.
-  Add valuable experiences to your resume and portfolio that will benefit you in the workplace.
-  Network with professionals across the state and content experts.
-  Make the Wisconsin Idea come to life!

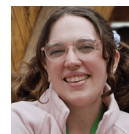

Make the Wisconsin Idea come to life – today!

Are you an undergraduate or graduate student interested in cities, urban planning, and opportunities to expand your learning by working with communities on real-world projects?

- 1. Enroll in Welcome to Your Urban Future (Urban and Regional Planning 215)
- 2. Apply for the UniverCity Alliance Scholars Program
- 3. Seek project-based courses
- 4. Consider UniverCity Alliance projects for your independent research or capstone experience

Email UniverCityAlliance@wisc.edu to get connected today!

“I knew my time at the Bolz Center and the time spent completing this project was monumental ... It made me excited for other students in the UniverCity Alliance program to see the impact of their work and begin to view themselves as community leaders.”
—Sydney Prather, MA '25

“UniverCity Alliance was a huge part of my graduate school experience and I really value all of the community connections I’ve built as a result of that work. Thank you so much for providing this opportunity to students!”
—Heidi Putnam, MS '24